

MISTER LEMUR'S

ADVENTURES IN WRITING CAMP

Adventure Guide

Overview: ☒

Adventures in Writing Camp is seeking creative, upbeat and zany counselors to lead campers throughout their camp day. From leading a round of capture the flag, to acting in morning improv skits, and giving camper's suggestions on plot and grammar, you'll have a blast while developing your own leadership, teaching, and acting skills! During the classroom rotations, you will participate in projects as though you yourself were a camper, other than times called upon to assist the credentialed teacher leading the rotation.

You:

- An outgoing "people-person" who loves working with kids
- Someone who loves getting silly, wearing costumes, and making others laugh
- A college student or college graduate who wants to help elementary school students fall in love with writing
- An up and coming actor or future teacher who believes that learning can and should be fun ☒
- An energetic team player who is always ready to help☒
- An adventurer who is willing to try new things and adjust along the way ☒
- A "maker" and a technology-lover who enjoys using technology to create new things ☒
- Someone who takes having fun very seriously, but does not take themselves TOO seriously

Us:

Inspire and be inspired! Immerse yourself in a world of creativity and music as you foster a love of writing among elementary and middle school campers. Adventures in Writing Camp is a two week day camp that channels the power of childhood imagination into writing success! The camp's curriculum and lessons guide students through the process of writing, illustrating and creating their own eBook or blog. See the magic of Adventures in Writing Camp for yourself at:

What you'll do...

- Create an unforgettably positive experience for every camper (grades 1-8) and parent ☒
- Be responsible for a troop of 15-30 campers, leading them from activity to activity and monitoring their overall happiness and safety on-site
- Be prepared to come dressed in a costume each day, and HAVE FUN! ☒
- Perform in daily assemblies that make writing topics fun and memorable ☒
- Actively support teachers with their lessons, explaining ideas, making corrections and suggestions and providing plenty of words of encouragement☒

- Help campers write and publish their own completed e-books or blogs
- Lead morning games with structure and high enthusiasm

What we're looking for...

- Current college student or recent graduate
- Experience working with K-8th grade children
- Current First Aid CPR Certification ideal but not required
- Experience teaching with tablets is a plus, as well as familiarity with the book publishing process.
- Excellent communicator (with parents, staff, and Site Administrator)

Time Commitment and Schedule

This is a 2-week commitment for the summer with the option of working more weeks if desired.

The Adventure Guide will be on site from 8:15am – 3:15pm with an unpaid 45-minute lunch break. For the sake of the kids' experience, it is expected that applicants plan to be available all ten days of any camp session they are working.

Attend a one-day on-site All Camp Training (typically in early June)

Complete online training assignments

Compensation & Benefits

- $10.50 - 15/hour (depending on camp location, not less than minimum wage)
- Temporary employee (non-benefited)
- Paid sick leave is accrued at a rate of one hour per every thirty hours worked. Accrual begins on the first day of employment. Paid sick leave may be used beginning on the 90th day of employment.
- Going forward, Adventure Guide "alumni" will have an inside track on leadership positions as the camp expands to other locations in the area during the summer.
